PRIVATE HOMES

Greater privacy and even more exclusive... Michel Reybier Private Homes brings together a collection of private homes that can be yours for a few days or a few weeks depending on your preference and offering a completely immersive experience. A new way to sample the art of enjoying excellence Michel Reybier Hospitality style.

THE PLEASURE OF A HOME FROM HOME

F eeling at home in a Haussmann-style apartment in Paris, a contemporary villa on the shores of Lake Geneva, a Mediterranean house on the French Riviera or a family abode in the middle of a vineyard in Bordeaux – and quite possibly other equally chic and elegant locations in the future. Every Michel Reybier Private Homes address holds the promise of rare and authentic moments, thanks to a household staff with experience in high-end service gained in the owner's 5 star and palace hotels. They represent irreplaceable added value compared with a straightforward rental. A dedicated butler, concierge, housekeeper, security service... one and all are entirely devoted to the wellbeing of the guests in each property.

A HAUSSMANN-STYLE APARTMENT PLACE DU TROCADÉRO - PARIS

Opposite the Eiffel Tower, this magnificent dressed-stone apartment block features every aspect of French classicism, in an extraordinarily luminous, minimalistic contemporary atmosphere... The ideal pied-à-terre for a family stay or romantic getaway for two, with the delightful feeling that Paris belongs to you.

AN ARCHITECT-DESIGNED HOUSE IN RAMATUELLE, ON THE SAINT-TROPEZ PENINSULA

Overlooking the most beautiful bay on the French Riviera lies a forgotten refuge, far from the hustle and bustle, with a breathtaking view over the endless blue of the Mediterranean. With its typical architecture and huge Mediterranean gardens, private swimming pools, shady patios, immense social spaces, elegant contemporary decoration... This is a place where time stands still.

A FAMILY HOME IN THE HEART OF THE WINELANDS OF BORDEAUX

Nestled in the vineyards of the Château Cos d'Estournel, Second Cru classé, the Chartreuse de Cos d'Estournel blends typical Médoc architecture with interior design by Jacques Garcia, featuring both indoor and outdoor pools as well as a hammam. The perfect place for a behind-the-scenes experience, much like the owner's, of a wine distinguished by intense aromatic complexity and revealing a unique style.

A LAKESHORE GLASS HOUSE, IN GENEVA

A 180° view over the silver waters of the lake from every room, stretched out like a mirror. Close by, the lights of Geneva sparkle. Further away, the Alps and the Mont-Blanc stand out against the skyline.

Far from prying eyes, spacious, understated spaces are enhanced by omnipresent plays on transparency. This sense of total osmosis with the environment is a rare privilege indeed.

EXCLUSIVE, EXTRAORDINARY EXPERIENCE

All over the world, exceptional places harbor treasures that the Michel Reybier Private Homes teams have a talent for finding and sharing, in order to offer their guests a wealth of rare privileges. An excursion on the Seine in a Riva boat before a glass of champagne at sunset on the roof of Paris' Grand Palais; an introduction to harvesting in the vineyards of Cos d'Estournel in Bordeaux; a private yoga session on an incredible rooftop facing the Mediterranean; a chance to take part in the Voiles de Saint-Tropez as a crew member aboard a classic sailboat competing in the regatta; a Fine Watchmaking Manufacture in Geneva...

Wonderful getaways resulting in unforgettable memories.
